

TRUST

“We are committed toward building positive relationships with each of the young men in our program. We feel very strongly that the relationship we develop with our student-athletes is the very fabric of our success. Without truth, there can be no trust. Without trust, there can be no relationship. And without relationship, the chances of achieving success decrease dramatically.”

“My best days playing for Coach Boone were visiting his house and spending time with Mrs. Boone, Jimmy Lee and Joey. Coach Boone’s home was our home. Coach Boone always kept my parents involved in everything that happened to me at school. Coach Boone and his staff made sure that I was doing the proper work in class and that I was on track to earn my degree.”

“I could list plenty of reasons why I enjoyed playing for Coach Boone, but the bottom line is I believe in Coach Boone and what he stands for. It is much more than victories. He has been a father away from home and a friend in difficult times — both when I played for him now as a professional basketball player.”

-Ryan Prillman-
Eastern Michigan University (Class of 2003)

“I entered school as an 18-year old freshman. Coach Boone helped develop me into a man. He taught me values such as hard work, sacrifice, unity and the meaning of team. I feel like the lessons I learned under Coach Boone’s leadership have prepared me to meet life’s challenges successfully. Now that I’ve graduated, Coach Boone is one of the best friends I have in the world. I always know I can count on him and his family.”
